1. Leaflets printed in Japanese and distributed during February 1949 in Formosa, probably by the Taiwan Communist Party, announce the projected publication of a party magazine. The first issue, to be done on mimeograph, is to appear on 7 March 1949.
2. The primary aim of the magazine "is to fuse the feelings and ideas of our comrades through the publication of articles that are in conformance with the interests and aims of all concerned. . . Emphasis shall be placed on the discussion of international problems. . . All articles that are of interest to our comrades are welcome, including those that are translated from various foreign sources. . ."
3. The magazine, to be financially dependent solely on contributions, is to be circulated free of charge.
